1. Academic Attendance

UNI-ATT-001 — Students are expected to maintain a minimum attendance of 75% in each registered course unless a higher requirement is specified by the department.

UNI-ATT-002 — Attendance is recorded by the faculty or authorized academic system. Students are responsible for checking their attendance records periodically.

UNI-ATT-003 — Requests for attendance relaxation must be submitted through the prescribed university process with supporting documentation. Approval is not automatic.

2. Course Registration

UNI-REG-001 — Students must register for courses within the published registration period. Late registration may require approval from the designated academic authority.

UNI-REG-002 — A student may register only for courses for which the prerequisites have been satisfied, unless an authorized waiver is granted.

UNI-REG-003 — Adding or dropping a course after the deadline requires formal approval and may affect academic records.

3. Examinations & Evaluation

UNI-EXM-001 — Students must carry valid university identification to examinations and comply with seating and examination instructions.

UNI-EXM-002 — Unauthorized notes, electronic devices, communication, or other prohibited materials during an examination may be treated as academic misconduct.

UNI-EXM-003 — Requests for re-evaluation, retotaling, or review must be submitted within the deadline announced for the relevant examination.

4. Grading & Academic Progress

UNI-GRD-001 — Grades are awarded according to the approved course evaluation scheme and published grading policy.

UNI-GRD-002 — A student who fails a required course must follow the applicable repeat, supplementary examination, or academic remediation process.

UNI-GRD-003 — Progression to the next academic stage is subject to the applicable credit, grade, and academic standing requirements.

5. Academic Integrity & Plagiarism

UNI-INT-001 — Students must submit original academic work and appropriately acknowledge sources, collaborators, software, datasets, and other external material.

UNI-INT-002 — Plagiarism, fabrication, falsification, unauthorized collaboration, impersonation, and other forms of academic dishonesty are prohibited.

UNI-INT-003 — Confirmed academic misconduct may result in penalties ranging from assignment/course failure to suspension or other disciplinary action, subject to due process.

6. Student Conduct & Discipline

UNI-CON-001 — Students must behave respectfully toward students, faculty, staff, visitors, and members of the university community.

UNI-CON-002 — Threats, harassment, violence, vandalism, discrimination, and disruptive conduct are prohibited.

UNI-CON-003 — Students must comply with reasonable instructions issued by authorized university personnel and must not misuse university facilities.

7. Anti-Ragging

UNI-ARG-001 — Ragging, bullying, intimidation, or humiliating treatment of another student is strictly prohibited.

UNI-ARG-002 — Complaints may be reported through designated university authorities or grievance channels. Retaliation against a complainant is prohibited.

UNI-ARG-003 — Violations may result in disciplinary action under applicable university policy and law.

8. Library Rules

UNI-LIB-001 — Students must carry their valid identification or library membership credentials when required.

UNI-LIB-002 — Borrowed material must be returned by the due date. Fines or other restrictions may apply to overdue items.

UNI-LIB-003 — Silence, proper handling of resources, and compliance with library staff instructions are required.

9. Hostel & Campus Facilities

UNI-HOS-001 — Residents must comply with hostel timings, visitor procedures, room-allocation conditions, and safety requirements.

UNI-HOS-002 — Damage to university property may result in recovery of repair or replacement costs in addition to disciplinary action.

UNI-HOS-003 — Unauthorized modification, transfer, or subletting of an allotted room or facility is prohibited.

10. Information Technology & Cybersecurity

UNI-IT-001 — University accounts, networks, devices, and computing resources must be used only for authorized academic, administrative, or approved activities.

UNI-IT-002 — Unauthorized access, credential sharing, malware distribution, network disruption, data theft, and attempts to bypass security controls are prohibited.

UNI-IT-003 — Students must protect passwords and immediately report suspected compromise of university accounts or systems.

11. Fees & Administrative Compliance

UNI-FEE-001 — Tuition and other approved university charges must be paid according to the published schedule.

UNI-FEE-002 — Late payment may result in applicable late fees, holds, or restrictions as specified by university policy.

UNI-FEE-003 — Refunds, waivers, and financial adjustments are governed by the applicable published policy and approval process.

12. Leave & Absence

UNI-LEV-001 — Students requiring leave must follow the designated leave application process and provide supporting information when requested.

UNI-LEV-002 — Approved leave does not automatically waive attendance, assessment, or examination requirements unless specifically authorized.

13. Grievances & Appeals

UNI-GRV-001 — Students may raise academic, administrative, or conduct-related grievances through the designated university grievance mechanism.

UNI-GRV-002 — Appeals must normally be filed within the period specified in the relevant decision or policy.

UNI-GRV-003 — Students must provide accurate information and supporting documents when submitting a grievance or appeal.

14. Policy Precedence & Supersession

UNI-POL-001 — Where multiple versions of a university rule exist, the rule with the applicable scope and effective date governs.

UNI-POL-002 — A newer policy explicitly marked as superseding an earlier policy replaces the earlier policy from its stated effective date.

UNI-POL-003 — Department-specific rules may supplement university-wide rules when they do not conflict with higher-level university policy.

Document Control & Disclaimer

This document is a fictional sample university policy document created for software testing, RAG evaluation, citation testing, and demonstration purposes.
